All teams playing CYO basketball in the Archdiocese of Hartford must submit a roster every year.
This roster is to be returned to the Deanery Director by the deadline set by the league and must be on record at ORE by Dec 30, 2009.
Coaches without background checks or Protecting God's Children Sessions are not eligible to coach.
Review Archdiocesan playing objectives, mission, and eligibility rules posted at www.orehartford.org/cyo.htm
CYO Sports Leader responsibilities:

- We understand player eligibility: School Division: athlete attends the school he/she represents full time.
  Parish Division: athlete is a registered member of the parish he/she represents and attends CCD/ Religious Education.
- We also understand and agree that:
  - The use of an ineligible player in CYO competition will result in a forfeit or disqualification.
  - The use of illegal numbers on the jersey (6, 7, 8, 9) is prohibited.
  - As a Catholic Youth Organization, good/ "God" role modeling is essential by players, coaches, officials, players, and fans. We are to minister to, supervise, and correct the conduct of our athletes at all times during CYO activities. The ORE will actively enforce suspension or eviction of those guilty of unsportsman-like conduct- youth or adult.
  - We accept full financial responsibility for any damages caused to gym facilities by our athletes.

We, the undersigned, attest that we have read and understood the above statements and responsibilities, as well as the basketball rules, and agree to conduct ourselves accordingly for the good order and general welfare of all concerned.
